

Standing as One Human Family

Presenter: Ted Miles

Catholic Relief Services
Relationship Manager
Religious Education

- Going Global with Youth
- Called to Witness
- NFCYM Partners

Catholic Relief Services
228. W. Lexington Street
Baltimore, MD, 21201
(410) 951-7475 tmiles@crs.org

Website: crs.org

Ted Miles is a native of Baltimore and has worked for CRS since July 2005 as the religious education relationship manager and staff member in the agency's youth strategy program. Prior to joining CRS, he served as a Jesuit volunteer in Belize and Guatemala, a parish youth minister for seven years, a Catholic high school teacher for eight years, and a diocesan youth leader throughout this time. Ted has created an urban immersion experience called Justice Action Week for high school youth, and continues to serve as the project director. The Archdiocese of Baltimore recently awarded him their highest honor in youth ministry, the Cardinal Sheehan Award, for his commitment to young people.

Spirituality of Solitariness Retreat and Resource Sharing for Youth Ministry

Prayer Share Care

March 30, 2009

10:00—3:30

St Bernard's School of Theology and Ministry

Cost: $10.00

Register by e-mail or phone greenblatt@dor.org

Mary Greenblatt at 585- 328-3210 x 1279

Sponsored by the Department of Evangelization & Catechesis

We are all part of one human family -- whatever our national, racial, religious, economic or ideological differences - and in an increasingly interconnected world, loving our neighbor has global dimensions.