INTERFAITH ACTIVITIES IN DIOCESE OF ROCHESTER

Highlight of the Season

8th Annual Ecumenical Good Friday Cross Walk: The Seven Last

Words of Christ, Friday, March 25, 2016 at 8:45 am. Start at St. Monica, 831 Genesee St. Rochester, NY and walk along side many other Christians of all denominations in solidarity for those who live throughout

Ongoing Activities

Commission on Jewish Christian Relations. (CJCR)

Psalms: Christian Jewish Bible Study: Second Wednesday of each month at noon at the Jewish Community Federation, at 441 East Ave. Currently studying Psalms: Prayers from the Heart.

GRCC- Faith in Action Network (http://grcc-fian.org/)

Faith organizations work together for social justice and spiritual development

Upcoming events: 8th Annual Ecumo

8th Annual Ecumenical Good Friday Cross Walk, 8:45 am Friday, March 25, 2016.

Faith in Action Network Banquet, June 7, 5:30pm

Muslim Catholic Alliance (MCA).

Monthly gatherings, by invitation, of Muslims and Catholics to discuss current religious concerns, factors of faith and interfaith projects in service of the wider community. Call Betsy McDermott at bmcdermott@dor.org with questions.

Commission on Christian Muslim Relations (CCMR).

Faith Based Discussion- First Wednesday of each month at noon at the Islamic Center, 727 Westfall Rd. If interested, please email Alan Newton at exercication-center, please emailto: exercication-c

Hindu-Christian Dialogue

First Mondays at the Hindu Temple at 7:00.

Temple is at 120 Pinnacle Road, Pittsford/Henrietta.

Annual Global Citizenship Conference

Annual Global Citizenship Conference: Next Generation Living in a Pluralistic World

Tuesday, March 8, 2016. Hear speakers and participate in interfaith workshops for high school students. Contact global.citizenship.con@gmail.com for more information. Over 600 students attend!

Brennan Goldman Institute (http://www.brennangoldman.org/)

Advancing Catholic Jewish Understanding, the Institute provides a home for interfaith dialogue and activities.