

Below please find some suggested questions to assist with any Interfaith/Ecumenical Synodal Conversations. These questions were submitted by CADEIO that stands for "Catholic Association of Diocesan Ecumenical and Interreligious Officers."

For the Jewish faith

- What experiences of “journeying together” in fraternity and collaboration with Catholics bring you joy and hope?
- How well do we dialogue – listen attentively and speak up candidly – within our wider community?
- In your experience does the Catholic Church witness effectively to the truth, goodness and beauty of the Jewish origins of Christianity?
- How effective are we in listening to all members of the community, regardless of their beliefs, including those who are on the peripheries?
- Do you find that the Catholic Church works to better the lives of all people, including ethnic communities, youth, families and persons with disabilities and their families?

For Orthodox Christians

- What experiences of “journeying together” in fraternity and collaboration with Catholics bring you joy and hope?
- How well do we dialogue together – listen attentively and speak up candidly – within our wider community?
- In your experience does the Catholic Church witness effectively to the truth, goodness and beauty of the Christian faith?
- How effective are we in listening to all members of the community, regardless of their beliefs, including those who are on the peripheries?

- Do you find that the Catholic Church works to better the lives of all people, including ethnic communities, youth, families and persons with disabilities and their families?

For Non-Catholic Christians

- What experiences of “journeying together” in fraternity and collaboration with Catholics among Christian churches bring you joy and hope?
- How well do we dialogue – listen attentively and speak up candidly – within our wider community?
- In your experience does the Catholic Church witness effectively to the truth, goodness and beauty of the Christian faith?
- How effective are we in listening to all members of the community, regardless of their beliefs, including those who are on the peripheries?
- Do you find that the Catholic Church works to better the lives of all people, including ethnic communities, youth, families and persons with disabilities and their families?

For Non-Christians

- What experiences of “journeying together” in fraternity and collaboration with Catholics interreligiously bring you joy and hope?
- How well do we dialogue – listen attentively and speak up candidly – within our wider community?
- In your experience does the Catholic Church witness effectively to the truth, goodness and beauty of the Christian faith?
- How effective are we in listening to all members of the community, regardless of their beliefs, including those who are on the peripheries?

- Do you find that the Catholic Church works to better the lives of all people, including ethnic communities, youth, families and persons with disabilities and their families?

For Agnostics or Atheists

- What experiences of “journeying together” in fraternity and collaboration with Catholics in your local community bring you joy and hope?
- How well do we dialogue – listen attentively and speak up candidly – within our wider community?
- In your experience does the Catholic Church witness effectively to the truth, goodness and beauty of her faith?
- How effective are we in listening to all members of the community, regardless of their beliefs, including those who are on the peripheries?
- Do you find that the Catholic Church works to better the lives of all people, including ethnic communities, youth, families and persons with disabilities and their families?