

WHY

To prepare our youth to be agents of the New Evangelization.

To catechize and equip young people with the tools to live as disciples of Jesus Christ in the 21st Century.

To empower young people as leaders in their families, churches, and world in a post-modern era.

To help them recognize God in their every day lives, in the people they meet, in their families, in their communities and in the Holy Mass.

To develop a skillful understanding of Servant Leadership.

To learn to brainstorm, plan, create and implement a project with excellence.

To practice consensus building, moral decision making and dealing with difficult people.

To develop social skills—learn ways to communicate with adults!
