

Roman Catholic Diocese of Rochester

STEWARDSHIP DAY 2014

Saturday, October 18, at Church of the Assumption, Fairport

8:00 a.m. Mass, celebrated by Bishop Matano

8:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Registration and Program

OUR SPEAKERS

The Reverend Mark G. Reamer, OFM, was assistant pastor and then pastor for 19 years of The Catholic Community of St. Francis of Assisi in Raleigh, NC, the recipient of the International Catholic Stewardship Council's prestigious Archbishop Murphy Award, presented to a parish annually for its outstanding work in Christian stewardship formation. An alum of Siena College, he has also served at St. Bonaventure University and has a great love for upstate New York. His pastoral interests include police chaplaincy, prison ministry and Catholic education/ formation. Father Reamer became Guardian of the Siena Friary in August 2014.

Sue Mathys is Coordinator of Stewardship at The Catholic Community of St. Francis of Assisi in Raleigh, a vibrant, growing community of over 5,000 families that exhibits a welcoming spirit and significant charism for social justice and outreach. After serving in many ministries and on Pastoral Council, she joined the parish's staff in 2006. Sue is a past participant of the International Catholic Stewardship Conference.

Deacon John McDermott is Executive Director of Providence Housing Development Corp., a diocesan affiliate whose mission is to provide quality, affordable housing to those most in need. John brings to Providence Housing more than 25 years of executive leadership and management experience with multiple industries. John also has been active in promoting Stewardship through his diaconal assignments at Holy Apostles and St Rita parishes.

John Cunneen has served as president of Cunneen – A Cathedral Solution, a firm specializing in assisting Catholic organizations with fundraising, since 2000. He authored A Practical Guide to Stewardship in Today's Catholic Church, used in hundreds of Catholic parishes across the country, as well as a seminar series on Stewardship in today's Catholic parish and presented to several hundred religious communities in the U.S.